

A representative of the T.R.A.D.E.S. employment assistance service office (Trades Referral Assessment, Direct Employment Strategy) based in Prince George will be in Kitimat on Tuesday, May 11th from 9am to 3pm at the Transitions Office (located at the Kitimat Court House) to meet with current clients and with any interested new clients.

What is TRADES?

T.R.A.D.E.S. offers no fee employment assistance services and workshops to unemployed adults and youth. If you are looking for employment assistance read about our services for clients.

We will help identify, assess & explore, your employment needs, abilities and goals.

We have workshops to help guide you towards sustainable, meaningful employment and/or apprenticeship training.

T.R.A.D.E.S. will help to facilitate a smooth transition back to work either directly, or indirectly via training.

Our staff includes experienced employment consultants who are also certificated journeyperson with at least one red seal TQ certification and extensive apprenticeship experience.

T.R.A.D.E.S. is sponsored by UFCW Local 247 Training and Education Society and funded by the Government of Canada.

T.R.A.D.E.S. also offers no fee services to employers seeking job ready workers. If you are seeking employees find out here what T.R.A.D.E.S. can offer.

Visit the T.R.A.D.E.S. web site at www.tradesbc.org for more information.

To learn what skills you already have and how these skills may be put towards a new career path, register for a one-on-one session with the T.R.A.D.E.S. representative by contacting Carole G. through the Transitions Office at 250-632-1398 or email at transitionsoffice@gmail.com.

Please don't hesitate to call or email me if you should need any further information

Carole Gagnon
Transitions Co-ordinator (Kitimat/Terrace)
Cell Phone: 250-632-1398
Email: transitionsoffice@gmail.com